

FREISCHLAG

THE WATERCOLORIST

Meet Peter Freischlag, one of North America's top-selling watercolorists with a flair for the bold and dramatic.

Known for his unique approach to watercolor, Peter's paintings are a symphony of bold colors, harmonious tones, and contemporary impressions. He pushes the boundaries of traditional watercolor techniques, constantly innovating and experimenting. He thrives on risk-taking, a theme that pulses through every brushstroke of his vibrant, larger-than-life artworks.

"You know how people ask what you would grab if your house was on fire? Honestly, I would grab all the members of my family and a custom painting by the amazing Pete Freischlag. It is a beautiful painting and memory of my husband and kiddos biking through Waterton Canyon in Colorado."
