OUR PROCESS

EMERGENCY RESPONSE PLAN

We have a unique multi-phased systems approach, our Preparedness Analytical Security Technique (P.A.S.T.), that we apply to every situation - molding its focuses to your similarly unique needs - and walks you through assessments, implementations, testing, training - and worst-case Response assistance. It is developed systematically from the most rigid and proven processes from the Emergency Management, Intelligence, Military and Security communities - and is not offered by any other organization period, facilitating deliberate Risk-Informed and Resilience-Based Decision-Making. We seek to harden our nation's infrastructure and our communities through the application of this approach to every person, echelon and sector, across ten vectored lines of effort and five phases, producing a holistically Resilient community.

- Every hazard occurrence comes with Losses and Time down – for individuals, families, and organizations or businesses of ALL sizes.
- Quality Preparedness initiatives are intended to reduce these negative curves.
- PCS' holistic approach is the only viable option to accomplish this goal.
- Other incomplete and uncalibrated efforts create exacerbated unacceptable risk for everyone involved, to include a resulting cascade of costs and losses.
