FALL 1997

MEMORIAL DAY
1997

Sixth annual tournament a tremendous success—despite the rain

The Executive Committee (EC) would like to thank all of the people that helped with this year's outing. Once again, family and friends got together for a day of golf and an evening of fun. Even though the weather didn't cooperate, participants and party-goers seemed to enjoy themselves.

This year's winners were Sean "Big Stick" Thomson and C. J. "Chili Dip" Theriac. We can all be thankful that Sean finally won—now he might stop complaining about the tournament outcome being predetermined. Because Sean and C. J. will be paired next year to defend their title, we can only hope they don't gloat as much as Sean whined.

This year we had a closest-to-the-pin contest on two holes. The prizes were a new putter, built by club craftsman Jim Pearson, and a dozen golf balls, provided by Craig "Grip It and Rip It" Coleman. The winner of the putter was Roger "Putt for Dough" Malatt. The winner of the golf balls was Craig Coleman. Obviously, he wasn't ready to give up the golf balls.

The longest drive competition was hotly contested this year. Steve "Let the Big Dog Eat" Colvert hit a monster drive, but was near the out-of-bounds markers. Mark "I Don't Need to Practice" Wright didn't hit the ball quite so far, but was clearly in-bounds. Being a non-confrontational person, Steve relinquished his claim to the prize and Mark won a new driver.

Most honest golfer's awards go to Frank Mohr and newcomer Mike Meyerrose.

The prize for the best-dressed golfer, a lightweight jacket, was provided by corporate sponsor Castrol Oil. This year the award went to John "Garanimals" Pearson. A dapper prizes, and to noted Lexington, KY socialites Mike and Helen Thomson for providing the official camera for the "best dressed" contest.

Mitch Theriac in knickers came in second place.

Awards in name only were given by Mitch Theriac. These are listed on the next page.

The EC would also like to thank the participants in this year's event and hopes that next year's outing will be as or even more successful. For those of you already planning for 1998, the outing will be on Sunday, May 24, with a pre-outing round of golf played on Saturday, May 23. The location has yet to be determined.

Although some golfers take the tournament seriously and question the EC's motives, everything that is done for this annual event is in the spirit of fun. If you have a suggestion for the tournament and/or the awards banquet, please submit it. If, on the other hand, you are feeling cranky and you want to vent some bad karma, keep it to yourself. We don't want to hear it. We have enough to worry about.

Tournament success

Please submit your comments and suggestions (within reason) to the EC, c/o John Pearson, 504 N. Emerson St., Mt. Prospect, IL 60056.

See you next year!

And speaking of next year...

We've lost a few of our loyal participants. Tournament rules dictate that if a person misses two consecutive events, he or she must petition the Executive Committee for re-entry.

We hope to see Bill Stevenson, Fr. Jack Frerker, Tom Mechtenberg, Danny Davis, Dave Felletti, and, of course, Mark Jester in 1998.

The good, the bad, and this year's contestants

As if the tournament weren't exciting enough...

Daredevil Sam Coudret, pictured here with his lifesaving grandma Maureen Coudret, decided, despite the overcast sky and threat of rain, to take a dip in the pool at the lovely Casa de Theriac. Unfortunately, he didn't warn anyone ahead of time, so he was fully clothed, as was Grandma Coudret when she jumped in to join him for a quick swim.

Luckily, Sam and Grandma both survived the short but scary episode. Sam's mother, Chris, is still recuperating.

*Thanks again to all who participated in this year's tournament.
For those of you who couldn't make it, we hope to see you in 1998.*

Watch your mailboxes for more information headed your way sometime in the spring.
