

Role: Data Analyst (Tableau/ Alteryx/ Power BI)Location: Singapore/India*Responsibilities

- Build client-ready visualization dashboards using tools like Tableau/Alteryx/Power BI
- Analyze the data using tools like Alteryx/Tableau/ Power BI
- Build and configure applications to meet business process and application requirements.
- Test and modify Alteryx Workflows as required/needed
- Identify opportunities to leverage new data sources/features to improve existing or develop new analytic solutions
- Create end-to-end, robust analytic products in key areas of the business eg Sales, Finance, Product, Strategy, Marketing, etc, working closely with business customers to scope, develop, implement, and monitor solutions

Qualifications

- Work experience: 3 to 5 years of experience in areas related to digital analytics. Hands-on experience in managing end-to-end customer surveys, data analysis and visualizations
- Education Required:
Degree Holder Preferred: Concentration in a quantitative discipline (such as Statistics, Mathematics, Engineering, Computer Science, Econometrics, Business Analytics)
- In-depth experience with working on Tableau and/or Alteryx
- Ability to implement a wide array of analytic techniques including Machine Learning
- Exceptional analytic and technical skills, including knowledge of market research tools, data science and business intelligence tools,
- Experience explaining and performing a variety of statistical and data mining techniques
- Experience developing audience-right high quality presentations
- Knowledge in Python, R, SQL is a plus
- Exceptional interpersonal and communication skills
- Proven self-starter (comfortable with what could be a remote team) with demonstrated problem solving and organizational skills