

U-turn on honour for Jimmy Savile

JIMMY Savile's name will be wiped from Scarborough's list of Freeman of the Borough if a council motion is passed.

Councillors will argue his name should be removed as a gesture of support to his 300 alleged victims. The disgraced BBC star was awarded the accolade in 2005. He also owned a second home and was buried overlooking the sea there a year ago.