

Jimmy Saville

fined £3

Disc jockey Jimmy Saville, in a letter to Leeds magistrates yesterday, admitted failing to display an excise licence on his Rolls Royce when it was parked in Leeds on January 4.

He wrote: "If I am fined can I have time to pay and if I am imprisoned can I go to Broadmoor, because I work there. Sincerest apologies, Jimmy Saville, O.B.E."

The magistrates fined Saville, of Wessex Court Esplanade, Scarborough, £3 and the clerk, Mr. David Hawkins, said a letter would be sent to Mr. Saville asking him for the money.