Classes & Commissions

I mix it up with different classes like rug hooking, applique, painting, wooly trees and sunflowers, punch needle, and rug punch. There are classes for everyone of all abilities! If you have a class suggestion or are a teacher, please contact me. We may be able to work something out.

Our Open Studio/Hook-Ins are so much fun. All you have to do is sign up (because I have limited seating), there is no charge. Bring whatever project you are working on, rug hooking, punch needle, weaving, crochet, scrapbooking, whatever you can tote here.

The September date is focused on finishing rugs and punch needle (for those who need a little help).

FYI - marking "GOING" on Facebook does not add you to a class or hook-in. Only signing up at www.twomorrowstreasures.com will register you.

Please check out the class page for dates and details.

Please note... if a class is full or it is past the sign-up date, the event will not show up on the class page. If you have signed up, make sure to print it out, or take a snapshot to save the information. We also have a cancellation policy that is posted on every event.

Don't forget about my pet portraits. Order before August 31st to guarantee completion by Christmas!
They can be ordered HERE.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions.

And please share my small local business to all of your family and friends!

Do you know about the Magdalena Rug Hookers Group? They are a wonderful, creative, and supportive group which is located right here in Perry County. The members have helped me with everything from classes, products, hook-ins, and have encouraged me when I wasn't sure how things were going. For this I will be forever grateful! Here is their flyer. They meet twice a month. Details are in the flyer. Such sweet and knowledgeable hookers!

MAGDALENA RUG HOOKERS

Perry County, PA

Magdalena Rug Hookers is named in honor of Magdalena Reiner Eby, a local woman (1832-1915), whose primitive hooked rugs are sought after worldwide by collectors of American folk art.

We are a group of rug hookers and fiber artists, from beginners to seasoned veterans. As a group, we hook one rug each year to donate as a fundraiser to local charitable organizations. We also volunteer to demonstrate rug hooking at local events, including Fort Hunter Day in Harrisburg, PA and the Little Buffalo Apple Festival in Newport, PA.

New members are always welcome! Our meetings are held twice a month, on the second Monday from 1:00-4:00 pm, and the fourth Monday from 6:30-8:30 pm at the New Bloomfield Senior Center, 225 W Main St. New Bloomfield, PA (behind Quick-Mart).

Primitive, Traditional, Contemporary and Everything In Between

Our members hook a diverse range of rugs, including patterns and their own original designs, large and small, using a variety of materials.

Our rugs can be found in private collections and galleries, and gracing the floors, tables, and walls of our own homes. Some have been featured in books and magazines.

Contemporary, mixed glass hooked rug designed and hooked by Peg McPherson. Donated to New Bloomfield United Methodist Church. Currently in a private collection.

Primitive rug designed by Kathleen Collins and hooked by the Magdalena Rug Hookers. Donated to the New Bloomfield Senior Center.

We are fortunate to have members with a passion for sharing their knowledge, who give presentations about rug hooking to groups in our community and teach classes.

If you're interested in learning more, please reach out to us and we'll be happy to help!

Traditional rug designed and hooked by Kathleen Collins. Currently in a private collection.

On reserve: Magdalena style primitive rug designed by Beverly Fox, hooked by the Magdalena Rug Hookers. Donated to the Bloomsburg Prison Library. Currently in a private collection.

I am thrilled to announce that Two Morrows Treasures has been voted as one of the Reader's Choice winners in Harrisburg Magazine's SIMPLY THE BEST 2025 contest!

Thank you all for voting for us! What a wild two years it has been, and we could not have done this without your help! Thanks so much!!!

Also, stay tuned for more exciting publication information! :) The word is finally getting out there!

Primitive Handmades Mercantile

I am really enjoying being an artist with Primitive Handmades Mercantile! This group has so many wonderful, talented primitive artists.

We post our new handmade and painted items on our artist page at www.primitivehandmadesmercantile.com on the 3rd Thursday of every month at 8:00 pm.

We are located at

130 Stiles Drive

Marysville, PA

FYI - If your GPS tries to take you over Lambs Gap Rd to Idle Rd, stay on Lambs Gap and don't take Miller's Gap Road (unless you wanna go 4 wheelin')!

We are at the end of Stiles Drive, top of the hill on the right in a log home. The shop is on our property.

Also, we have a stone driveway. If you have a handicap and would like assistance, please notify me! I will be happy to make accommodations for you!

LOOK FOR OUR SIGN ON RT 850

It is on the East end of Grier Point! There are two entrances to Grier Point. Easy as pie to find!

Thank you for supporting our small business!
