“Day” refers to # of days actual show classes are held. This will include arrival day schooling, warm-up coaching, ring side coaching, test reading (if applicable), test review after, assistance with prep (as appropriate), logistics of travel, use of team tack room, group equipment, etc.

**Team tack room, hotel expenses, other travel expenses, etc. will be split between all showing parties and will be provided in advance.

HAULING: TBD per trip – rates will depend on fuel prices, distance, number of loaded horses, etc. Prices will be quoted at time of booking. (Approximately $2/loaded mile, round trip)

SCHOOLING SHOW JUDGING & RIDE A TEST CLINICS: From $250/day (based on 8 hours) **I have attended the USDF “L” training programs as a participant in sessions A-C. I have not tested so am NOT an “L” grad. If your show requires an official “L” grad, I will not qualify. I have judged schooling shows with classes through 2nd level, both Dressage & Western Dressage.

FULL BOARD: $715/Month Includes individually customized nutrition, locally grown free-choice hay, dedicated box stall, full turn out in good weather, blanket management, supplement & medication feeding (owner provided), parasite prevention management, routine scheduling and holding for farrier & vet care (non-emergency; vaccines, dentals and trims only – actual fees for services paid by owner), private walk-in tack locker, discounts on lessons, discounts on training and clinic fees, access to heated bathroom & heated observation room, “hack track”, regular on-site clinics, shows & other educational events.
