

Layla Spring

Layla's music career kicked off in 2018, after she was scouted out by the reality television show "American Idol", gaining millions of views overnight. During her time on the show she became not only a finalist, but a fan favorite. She was voted back on by America in 2020.

Layla has pulled inspiration from Miley Cyrus, Kelsea Ballerini, Taylor Swift, Tina Turner and Michael Jackson to name a few.

She has been on the road for many years, kicking off the show for incredible artists that include: Montgomery Gentry, Colt Ford, Easton Corbin, Exile, Leann Rimes, Terri Clark & so many more. Her music has caught the attention of country music's Luke Bryan, the legendary Lionel Richie, the iconic Katy Perry, Lauren Alaina, Scotty McCreery & more!

Having been on multiple tours, and playing over 1,000 shows, Layla also released her EP Single, "Another You" in 2020.

Her biggest dream is to inspire the world that anything is possible, if you just believe in yourself, and she's doing just that with her music today. After all, she's just a small town girl from Kentucky!
