I lost the war (I lost the war)

Thought I could win the battle by playin' it safely

Verse 3

Verse 2

Why should I demonstrate some bravery?

Battle worn you look at me so gravely

Why do you react so strangely?

The fog of war hangs thick and hazy

It's plain to see the combats done

You expected so much more

Must every engagement end so fatally?

Than a neon sign declarin' no vacancy

I may've won once
