Last Modified: 24 March 2022

BACKGROUND

All competitions managed by the West Australian Football Commission are played as per the AFL Laws of Australian Football. In addition to the AFL Laws of Australian Football, the below local rules apply to all Year 11 – Year 12 competitions to ensure fair and even competitions. Coaches must endeavour to coach players within the spirit that these rules were intended (refer to WAFC Junior & Youth Rules & Regulations, Rule 1 – Spirit of Junior Football.)

Please note that where mixed year group competitions are played, the competition rules of the lower year group shall be applied.

4b. Finals Eligibility	i. To be eligible to take part in any finals match all non-WAFL Colts players must have played a minimum of five matches for that club in the qualifying rounds of that season for the Year 11–12 competition year group.
	The below is only applicable to Clubs with two teams entered in the Year 11-12 Year Group.
	 ii. The division a player is permitted to play finals is as follows: a) A player is permitted to play in any higher division final. b) A player who plays in a finals match of a higher division is permitted to play in a lower division final (after the higher grade is eliminated) if the player has played five qualifying matches in that lower division. c) A player who has played less than five qualifying matches in a division is only permitted to play finals in the highest division in which he has played. d) Where a club has more than one team playing in a final on the same day a player from a higher division may play for the lower division, except those players stated in 4b(ii)(b) and 4b(ii)(c). iii. A player who has suffered a long-term injury, and has subsequently not qualified for finals, may on application to the WAFC be deemed eligible given that they have provided supporting medical documentation. The final decision is at the sole discretion of the WAFC. A long-term injury refers to an injury where the recovery period is six or more consecutive weeks in length.
	WAFL Colts Players
	iv. WAFL Colts players must have played a minimum of seven matches for that club in the qualifying rounds of that season for the Year 11-12 competition year group to be eligible for finals.
	v. WAFL Colts players who have played at least three quarters of the total matches of the qualifying rounds of the WAFL Colts season are ineligible to play with a junior club/team during junior finals.
4c. Forfeits	 Where club has more than one team and forfeits through insufficient players, the team to forfeit must be the lowest graded team of that club. If a higher team forfeits, the clubs teams that are graded lower than that forfeiting team will also record a forfeit for that round. (updated 24.03.2022)
