

JEREMY HARRY HARRIS

Australian singer-songwriter Jeremy Harry Harris faced pandemic-induced turmoil, leading to a new album collaboration with Cuban musician Reinier Martin Rodriguez. The resulting concept album, "Walking With My Darkness," delves into themes of grief, loss, and human nature's shadows. It highlights the struggle between darkness and light, emphasizing resilience and acceptance.

The album's debut single, "Flatline D.O.A.," looks to define the struggles associated with love and loss.

Harris's evolution from his prior work reflects a fresh start. The album, recorded across continents, was released on February 16, 2024.

Harris, unafraid to express the deep darker side of his emotions in his music is unapologetic in his approach to rock music.
