

In My World

The morning after God called to Samuel, Eli asked Samuel what He said. Samuel told Eli all of what God had told him. That must have been very hard for Samuel to deliver such bad news to Eli, but he was brave to do what he was supposed to do. Sometimes telling someone about God's love for them may be very hard to do because we don't know how the person will respond. We must always tell people the truth even when it is hard for us to say or may be hard for them to hear. God will take care of the rest.

Reflection Questions

1. Have you ever not told someone the whole story because there were parts in the story that might upset them?
2. Have you ever dreaded a conversation with someone just to find out that telling them something wasn't as bad as you thought it would be?

My Prayer for You

My prayer for you is that you will always be listening for God. God doesn't usually talk to us with a voice like He did with Samuel. He usually talks to us through reading His word, the preaching of His word, and the Holy Spirit that lives within us once we've accepted Jesus as our Savior. My prayer is that you're always found with your heart and mind open to receive whatever message God is giving you. I also pray that you are bold enough to do what he is asking you to do, even if it means having difficult uncomfortable conversation with others.
