

In My World

King Ahab was told about the real God and the false god Baal. God expected him to live in a way that glorified Him. Believing in the other god meant he could do whatever he wanted to. King Ahab chose the god that would let him do whatever he wanted to do. In life, sometimes the wrong things look like a lot of fun. In those moments when we must choose between having fun and glorifying God, we need to be sure that we are choosing to do the right things.

Reflection Questions

1. Have you ever had to choose a team or a side when one way looked more fun but the other way was going to keep you on the right track? Which side did you choose?
2. Have you ever had to stand alone when everyone else was choosing to do something they weren't supposed to do? How did that make you feel?

My Prayer for You

My prayer for you is that you will make decisions that please God. Sometimes in life, what we want to do and what we need to do are very different things. In those moments, I hope you can remember just how much God loves you and skip out on what you want to do so you can do what needs to be done. The right choice is always the right choice no matter what everyone else is doing.
