

In My World

When we pray, God always hears our prayers. He doesn't always answer them the way that we want him to, but he always hears them. Sometimes God answers our prayers with a "yes". Sometimes God knows that what we want is not what we need so He answers with a "no". But sometimes the answer is "wait". Sometimes God is going to give us the things we ask for, but He is going to wait until the time is right. Even though it may be difficult at times, we must trust that God knows exactly the right way to answer.

Reflection Questions

1. Has God ever answered your prayers with a yes? No? Wait? Was it always easy to accept his answer?
2. If God loves us, why would he ever answer our prayer with "no" or "wait"?

My Prayer for You

My prayer for you is that you take your problems to God. When your heart is broken and you don't understand why hard things are happening, I pray that you will go to God in prayer and hand those things over to Him and trust He will take care of everything according to His perfect plan. I pray that even when God answers your prayers with a "no", you will understand that He loves you too much to give you everything you want if those things are outside of His plan. I pray that you will be patient in the waiting when your prayers can't be answered when you want them to be. God's timing is always the best timing, even when the waiting is hard. I pray that you take all your problems to God and trust Him with the answers.
