

While Jonah was on the boat to Tarshish, there came a great storm. A storm is kind of weather. Each season brings a different kind of weather and different temperatures. We wear different kinds of clothes to match the temperatures. Look at the tree pictures below. Trees look different in different seasons. Match the clothes to the tree that belong in the same season.

