

Joseph's coat was very colorful just as the world is very colorful. Look at the crayons below. Color each crayon the color that is written on the wrapper. Then match the crayon on the left to the object God created of that color on the right.

