

In My World

Rahab lied to the king's men. We are not supposed to lie, and God is never ok with that but what Rahab did was protecting God's people. God used Rahab, her reputation, and the location of her house to do a very important job. While God does not want us to lie, sometimes He will want us to do anything we can to help others especially if we are helping them do His work.

Reflection Questions

1. Have you ever had to tell a lie to help protect someone? How did you decide what to do? Did you ask God for forgiveness even though what you did helped someone?
2. Have you ever looked at someone and thought about all the bad things they've done? Do you think God uses people who have done bad things?

My Prayer for You

My prayer for you is that you are always willing to help others. Sometimes helping others who truly need your help may require you to make tough decisions. Sometimes you may have to break a rule in order to do the right thing. My prayer is that you pray and let God help you make those tough decisions. I also hope you pray after you have done something against God's rules seeking His forgiveness even though breaking the rule is what had to be done. The closer you are walking with God, the more He will lead you to make those tough decisions and maybe avoid breaking the rules at all.
