

In My World

When asked what happened to him, the beggar knew he might get in trouble if he told people the truth about what had taken place and who Jesus was. He did not let the risk of being punished change the answer he gave. He was brave and he went on telling people about Jesus even if it was going to get him in trouble. We should always be brave and share the truth about Jesus so other people can learn about him and grow to love him the way we do.

Reflection Questions

1. Have you ever been in a situation when talking about Jesus might not be the cool thing to do?
2. Have you ever had a problem and something super crazy came along and fixed your problem. Did you take time to recognize God's hand in the solution?

My Prayer for You

My prayer for you is that you look for God's hand at work in your life. I pray that when things go your way and wonderful things happen, you praise God for His blessings on you. I pray when you are having a hard time in life, whether it be your fault or not, you can trust that God has a plan for your situation and the strength to help you overcome it. I pray that you give Him the glory for the things He does in your life even if other people might think you're crazy. I pray that you never let what other people think keep you from telling the truth about Jesus.
