

Haman rolled dice to decide what day he would attack all the Jews. Look at the pictures of dice below. The first dice will represent the month and the second dice will represent the day. See if you can figure out what day Haman might have been planning.

1 – January	2 – February	3 – March
		January February March
		January February March
		January February March

And who knoweth whether thou art come to thy kingdom for such a time as this.

Esther 4:11
