

Esther was picked to go before the king because she was very beautiful. Even though she was also a good person on the inside, the king first saw that she was beautiful on the outside. Look carefully at the pictures below and draw a line matching the pictures that are exactly the same.

