

People didn't like Zacchaeus because of the things he had done but when he put in his faith in Jesus, he changed. He became a new man. There are lots of things in nature that change from one thing into something else. Look at the pictures below. Draw a line from the item on the top to the item it will become on the bottom.

