

GENEVIEVE "GEN" GIAMMANCO

was a strong, joyful and loving person. She embraced life with infectious enthusiasm and reached out to others with laughter, friendship and compassion. She was an eager learner and a talented athlete, determined to achieve her best in the classroom and on the volleyball court. Following her tragic death at the age of 17, those blessed by knowing Gen saw even more clearly what a remarkable girl she was and what a beautiful and gifted young woman she was becoming. The Gen Giammanco Foundation hopes the Awards given in Gen's name will serve as an inspiration and make a difference to all its recipients.
