TRUSTEES' CHAIRS INTRODUCTION

This has been a difficult year as the pandemic has had a significant impact on levels of poverty and social injustice; resulting in thousands of families in crisis. The Ron Todd Foundation has worked hard to rise to the challenges, this has brought.

Established as a project through Community Court Yard in 2011, this year marks the Ron Todd Foundation's fifth year as a charity working to support the prevention or relief of poverty and promotion of equality and diversity.

This year it was an honour to present eight extra-ordinary people / groups with Ron Todd Awards virtually - as we all become experts on zoom and teams.

Despite closing the doors to Ron Todd House individuals and families have continued to knock on the door of Ron Todd House and we have supported them as much as we have been able to.

Our solidarity education programme remained an online platform where we upskilled, trained, begun and continued conversations around issues food, fuel, IT poverty.

The impact of the Ron Todd Foundation remains significant and is illustrated by the numbers who use the services of the foundation.

As chair of the Ron Todd Foundation, I feel proud of what the charity has achieved in these unprecedented times. I want to say thank you to each and every brother, sister, friend who has helped to build the foundation. I am proud to be part of an enthusiastic and dedicated team of trustees who share a passion for achieving our core objectives and building a better and fairer world in memory of Ron Todd

A woman with long, light-colored hair styled in two braids is smiling at the camera. She is wearing a dark blue cardigan over a patterned top and a necklace with circular and rectangular pendants. She is holding a bright pink rectangular sign with both hands. The background is a plain wall with a light switch and a whiteboard with some faint markings.

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

The charity's purpose as set out in the constitution:

The objects of the CIO are:

1 The prevention or relief of poverty anywhere in England and Wales in particular but not exclusively by:
providing or assisting in the provision of education, training and projects;

Undertaking and supporting research into factors that contribute to poverty and the most appropriate ways to mitigate these;
Providing housing, support and education.

ENSURING OUR WORK DELIVERS OUR AIMS

We review our objectives and activities each year. This review looks at what we have achieved and the outcomes of our work in the previous twelve months. The review looks at the success of each key activity and the benefit they have brought to those groups of people we are set up to help. The review also helps us ensure our objectives and activities remain focused on our stated purposes. We have referred to guidance contained in the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit when reviewing our objectives and in planning our future activities. In particular the trustees consider how planned activities will contribute to the objectives they have set.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE & MANAGEMENT

The Ron Todd Foundation is governed by its constitution. The trustees are responsible for the strategic direction of the charity, meeting quarterly or more frequently to review the performance of the charity and the work of the team.

APPOINTMENT OF TRUSTEES

New trustees are recruited by advertisements and features placed in appropriate press and organisations targeted for particular expertise and knowledge. The Ron Todd Foundation adheres to a policy of equal opportunities in the advertisement, selection, recruitment and training of its members and within all aspects of its service delivery.

Applicants receive an application pack, which includes the roles and responsibilities of trustees' and the charities constitution, information about the charity and a letter explaining the process of appointment.

Applicants are interviewed by the trustees, who then reach a decision as to the suitability of the candidate. Successful candidates are appointed subject to a satisfactory DBS check.

At the next trustee meeting, they are officially elected and all trustees are subjected to re-election at our annual general meeting in accordance with the constitution.

THE FOCUS OF OUR WORK

Our main objectives for the year continue to be the prevention or relief of poverty and the promotion of equality and diversity. The strategies that we used to meet these objectives included:

LECTURE

Education outside of the classroom is the back bone of growing a movement that has the skills to ensure that the fight for social justice and the eradication of poverty is placed firmly in the heart of local communities.

The Ron Todd Foundation knows that education is more than books, it is about real people, sharing their stories, inspiring social action. Which is why the foundation celebrates the birthday of Ron Todd each year by hosting the Ron Todd Lecture.

The lecture remembers and acts up the words

"The past we inherit, the future we build"

AWARDS "The job is to celebrate, to make the ordinary, extra ordinary"

Bruce Kent, vice president CND

The Ron Todd Awards are given as recognition of the extra ordinary.

This year they were presented to:

CASE STUDY

"TY" is a thirty seven year old man, who identifies as neurodiverse, bisexual and is trans. He experienced hate crime accessing health care and his community.

At the foundation, we have trained volunteers, "solidarity buddies" who are able to provide face to face, one to one support for individuals who come to the Ron Todd House and their families and friends. The foundation also provides solidarity education workshops

We also have trained solidarity buddies who are focused on dealing with hate crime and its' impact.

AND NOW

Ty is now living in a different home, in a smaller property. He has a new GP surgery and is accessing regular counselling sessions for his emotional health. He now regularly attends a local LGBTQIA social group.

ACTIONS

1. The Ron Todd Foundation solidarity buddy met with TY and supported them by enabling them to access health services and sharing feedback.
2. Ty was accompanied to the police and supported them in reporting the hate crimes that they had experienced.
3. Ty stayed at Ron Todd House on two occasions, for a period of ten days and four days. When they were feeling vulnerable and emotional unwell.
4. The buddy met with Ty virtually / real world over eight months enabling them to access local support services.

SOLIDARITY EDUCATION

IT'S ABOUT COMMUNITY ORGANISING, CONNECTING PURPOSEFULLY AND SAFELY. BEING COCREATIVE, CREATING SOCIAL CHANGE. A BETTER WORLD IS POSSIBLE.

From the 1850's trade unionists have played an important role in determining and defining the narrative around community organising.

The Ron Todd Foundation believes that grassroots community activism empowers people to take charge of their own community. Solidarity is not something that happens in isolation, it begins through developing authentic relationships, where conversations up-skill, empower, motivate and mobilise.

The Solidarity Education programme delivers real world and virtual workshops / courses where activists and community members can share ideas. The co-creative space created allows for more than a continuation of the discussion of the principles of solidarity in action, it identifies the unique and effective principles of solidarity and puts them into action.

Taking action to spark movements, doing things with people not for people, providing co-creative spaces where ideas can be shared and creative solutions.

HOUSES

BEING PART OF A FAMILY IS PRACTICAL SOLIDARITY IN ACTION

Being part of a family means you are not alone. The Ron Todd Houses, are an extension of the traditional family, which simply means practical solidarity in action.

They provide a much needed community space, at a time when significant numbers are facing the effects of austerity due to the war on welfare.

We ensure that people know that they belong to a wider family and the door will always be open twenty four seven for real, practical hands on support. Which includes being able to stay overnight, having hot meals, use of the washing machine, telephone - together with just dropping in to have a cup of tea or coffee to discuss the issues.

The covid pandemic has meant that we have had to shut the door at Ron Todd House at the moment, to keep everyone safe. Since this day, our telephone has been ringing non-stop as we have moved our efforts to finding creative community connections, both virtually and in the real world.

The pandemic has highlighted how important human connection is. This has led to the development of a Ron Todd House Community. Where individuals, organisations, families, branches can sign up and share skills, spaces and solidarity.

FUTURE PLANS

The Ron Todd Foundation will continue to focus on the key activities of the charity; continuing to support those who experience poverty, inequality and social injustice.

The Ron Todd Lecture & Awards will take place on 11th March 2022.

In accordance with the Covid19 government guidelines have not opened the doors at Ron Todd House, however we will do so as soon as we are able to. We will continue to look at new and creative ways to support people who accessed the services of the Ron Todd House.

We will be continuing with our curation of a series of books on the theme of solidarity, bringing together stories, theory and inspiration. We will also be continuing our SolidariTea 52 series exploring different acts of solidarity and sharing them through a variety of platforms. Additionally we are establishing our story time sessions exploring books on the theme of solidarity in action.

We will also continue to develop our solidarity education programme, developing our online programme. Finally our work will include the delivery of our Looking Back To Fight Forward campaign.
