We cannot wait to get to know you and for you to see real change activate in your life!

This is a Movement.

Pink Marker

MOVEMENT

Pro tips from the Pink Marker Team

-Uncovering hidden wounds is scary but this is where your freedom lies

-Confronting lies takes boldness and courage, you willing to do this alone, shows strength

-Change does not come from comfort zones

-Do not let the lies of fear or failure hold you back from a new life

-Thoughts of what if nothing changes can come to mind, but we would like to challenge that thought... instead consider what if you succeed and it changes everything? What would you do then?

Pink Marker Movement

What is this movement?

The Pink Marker Movement is a powerful movement where you re-write the labels that have been covering you, and likely muting your voice.

Through the Pink Marker Course, you will identify, challenge and re-write the labels that depict your story. Take back the power of your voice by bringing your story to the surface in a powerful and moving way.
