From Our Pastor:

God's Word provides the only sure foundation on which to build the life of your family. On behalf of our church family at Philadelphia Baptist Church, we consider it an honor to have you with us this Lord's Day! We extend an invitation for you to come home to Philadelphia Baptist Church.

Two friends were walking through the desert. During some point of the journey, they had an argument and one friend slapped the other one in the face. The one who got slapped was hurt, but without saying anything, wrote in the sand:

"Today my best friend slapped me in the face."

They kept on walking, until they found an oasis, where they decided to take a bath. The one who had been slapped got stuck in the mire and started drowning, but the friend saved him. After he recovered from the near drowning, he wrote on a stone: "Today my best friend saved my life."

The friend who had slapped and saved his best friend asked him, "After I hurt you, you wrote in the sand and now, you write on a stone, why?"

The friend replied, when someone hurts us we should write it down in sand, where the winds of forgiveness can erase it away. But, when someone does something good for us, we must engrave it in stone where no wind can ever erase it."

Wit & Wisdom

We tell people to keep the faith; not only should you keep it, but you ought also to give it away.

The best argument for Christianity and the best argument against Christianity is the life of a Christian. Not only are we to be His witnesses; we ought to be part of the evidence.

Life is too short. Eternity is too long. Souls are too precious. The Gospel is too wonderful for us to sleep through it all.

Jesus didn't die to make bad people good, but to make dead people live.

Until you come to the end of you, you won't come to the beginning of Him.

God uses broken things. It takes broken soil to produce a crop, broken clouds to give rain, broken grain to give bread, broken bread to give strength. It is the broken alabaster box that gives forth perfume. It is Peter, weeping bitterly, who returns to greater power than ever.

If you are a Christian, you are not a citizen of this world trying to get to heaven; you are a citizen of heaven making your way through this world.

A soft and sheltered Christianity, afraid to be lean and lone, unwilling to face the storms and brave the heights, will end up fat and foul in the cages of conformity.

We are suffering today from a species of Christianity as dry as dust, as cold as ice, as pale as a corpse, and as dead as King Tut. We are suffering not from a lack of correct heads but of consumed hearts.

— Vance Havner

Let it never be forgotten that, although we may do nothing about the Word we hear, the Word will do something to us.

The same sun melts ice and hardens clay, and the Word of God humbles or hardens the human heart.

The vision must be followed by the venture. It is not enough to stare up the steps, we must step up the stairs.

I BELIEVE IN THE CHURCH AND IN LOYALTY TO A LOCAL CHURCH. I AM NOT IN FAVOR OF THAT VIEW OF THE INVISIBLE CHURCH THAT MAKES ONE INVISIBLE AT CHURCH ON SUNDAY MORNING.

Revival is falling in love with Jesus all over again.

Somebody said there are three kinds of lies: black lies, white lies, and statistics.
