From Our Pastor:

God's Word provides the only sure foundation on which to build the life of your family. On behalf of our church family at Philadelphia Baptist Church, we consider it an honor to have you with us this Lord's Day! We extend an invitation for you to come home to Philadelphia Baptist Church.

S. H. Hadley, of the Water Street Mission, once met a boy in the street utterly ragged and miserable. He had stolen money from his father, and had run away from home. He was reaping the bitter wages of sin, and was penniless in the great city. Mr. Hadley advised him to go back to his father, but the boy said: "You don't know my father. He is a hard man; he will never forgive me."

"Well, come to the mission and stay tonight."

That very evening a letter went to the father, telling him that his missing boy was at the Water Street Mission, in destitute circumstances, and that he was sincerely sorry for his wrongdoing. The next morning a message flashed over the wire, saying: "My boy is forgiven; tell him to come home."

That is Christ's message to the wandering ones today. How the blessed word "Come," echoes through Holy Scripture! But human hearts seldom hear its music.

ONE REASON SIN FLOURISHES IS THAT IT IS TREATED LIKE A CREAM PUFF INSTEAD OF A RATTLESNAKE.

Slander slays three people: the speaker, the spoken to, and the spoken of.

You cannot sink someone else's end of the boat and still keep your own afloat.

The world is horribly disordered and out of joint: it must come under omnipotent surgery before we can expect health.

I have noticed that nothing I never said ever did me any harm.

Oh, how horrible our sins look when they are committed by someone else.

Wit & Wisdom

If our spiritual life does not grow where we are, it will grow nowhere.

True spirituality manifests itself in:

1. The desire to be holy rather than happy.
2. The desire to see the honor of God advanced through his life.
3. The desire to carry his cross.
4. The desire to see everything from God's viewpoint.
5. The desire to die right rather than live wrong.
6. The desire to see others advance at his expense.
7. The desire to make eternity-judgments instead of time-judgments.

The devil is sincere, but he is sincerely wrong.

THE USE OF BAD MUSIC FOR A GOOD GOAL DOES NOT ALTER THE MUSIC'S CHARACTER, ONLY THE CHARACTER OF THOSE WHO USE IT.

He who seeks revenge, digs two graves.

A vain oblation is when you put your money in the plate and never give God yourself.

But whether the world likes it or not, there stands the word of our God: "When I see the blood, I will pass over you."

We have fundamentalism and facts; we have activity and earnestness and sincerity; we even have blood-washed and blood-nourished Christians, well-taught in the Word, but we still lack fire*.*
