

Host: Alf Bjørseth

Director: Jon Dahlkvist

Co-Director: Julia
Mustonen-Dahlkvist

August 2022

Glafsfjorden Festival Summer 2022

19 August: 18.00

20 August: 15.00 & 18.00

21 August: 15.00 & 18.00

Welcome to our summer edition at Hillringsbergs herrgård!
Artistic Director: Tony Yike Yang

20,21 Augusti

Geza Hosszu-Legocky

One of the most exciting violinists.

Made debut in Verbier Festival when he was 12 years old and playing on biggest stages in the world ever since.

20, 21
August

Makcim Fernandez Samodaiev

Solo cellist, chamber musician and concert organizer Makcim Fernandez Samodaiev embodies several international elements in his musical art making. He is currently living and working to transform musical life of Sibui, Romania. _____

19-21 August

Aurelia Shimkus

Echo Klassik 2016 Winner: “an extraordinary debut” – Der Spiegel

“...amazes with combining impressive boldness and precious tenderness in her musical language” – HRAudio France

20,21 August

Daumants Liepins

"Sensitive, imaginative, in full command of his instrument's resources, Liepins effortlessly keeps the listener transfixed."
– The Times

No. 1 in Pianist Magazine's "Pianists to Look Out For in 2020"

19-21 August

Kristian Riisager

Kristian Riisager (b. 1996) graduated in 2020 as bachelor from HfM “Hanns Eisler” in Berlin, and since he has been studying his masters at The Royal Danish Academy of Music. He has played many concerts in Denmark and abroad, and later this year he’ll release his debut album with music by Beethoven.

19-21 August

Umberto Ruboni

Umberto Ruboni is an Italian pianist. He enjoys music in every aspect, performing as a soloist and chamber musician and working as a teacher and piano accompanist. Thanks to his musical skills and versatility he was able to play in beautiful places and work with great musicians.

19-21 Augusti

Astri Aareskjold

"Astri conveys her musical ideas in a fantastic way. Her choice of phrasing is clear to the audience and her music making is touching."

- Krausstipendiet scholarship jury

19-21 August

Nikita Khnykin

Nikita Khnykin has distinguished himself as one of the most promising Norwegian pianists. He has despite his young age performed with important Norwegian orchestras and been featured at most of the important concert venues in Norway.

19-21 August

Adi Neuhaus

In the Neuhaus family music is in one's blood. [...] Time has come with Adi and his golden fingers."

- Auditorium du Louvre

"Adi Neuhaus is a marvellous balance of energy and gentleness."

-La Nouvelle République

19-21 August

Tatu Eskelinen

Pianist from Finland. Joining Ingesund Piano Center for 2022-23.

Prizewinner of several important competitions including the Nordic, Tampere, Helsinki Lied. Performed in over ten European countries and Japan as a soloist and chamber musician.

19-21 August

John Nalan

John Nalan is one of Sweden's prize-winning young generation pianists who has performed in halls like Carnegie Hall, Laeiszhalle in Hamburg and in Vienna Konzerthaus.

19-21 August

Sebastian Livonen

Sebastian Livonen (1997), born in Stockholm, is one of the most promising Swedish pianists of his generation. Sebastian has won 1st prizes in 16 international piano competitions for young pianists. This year chosen to play in Concours de Geneva and Busoni

19, 20, 21
August

Tony Yike Yang

Youngest-ever laureate in the history of the Chopin Competition in Warsaw

Past performances for Her Royal Highness Camilla, the Duchess of Cornwall and Canadian Prime Minister
Stephen Harper

