Michael Breed

PGA Coach of the Year + TV Personality

Michael Breed, celebrated golf instructor and TV host, has partnered with Pinned Golf, attracted by the brand's excellence and innovative products. Known for hosting "The Golf Fix" on Golf Channel and earning accolades such as PGA National Teacher of the Year, Breed's endorsement highlights his confidence in Pinned Golf's offerings. His reputation as a top coach aligns with Pinned Golf's commitment to enhancing the golf experience through advanced technology and design.

"I have said it once and I will say it again, The Pinned Golf Rangefinder is my go to rangefinder. The combo of quality, features, and price, there is no better option."

Michael Breed

Jeff Hamley

PGA Tour Caddie

Jeff Hamley, veteran PGA Tour caddie for Andrew Novak, has teamed up with Pinned Golf, drawn to the brand's reputation for precision and innovation. With years of experience walking golf's biggest stages and providing strategic insight under pressure, Hamley brings a deep understanding of what it takes to perform at the highest level. His endorsement reflects his trust in Pinned Golf's technology and design, aligning perfectly with the brand's mission to equip golfers with the tools they need to excel on the course.

"When we prepare for each week's PGA Tour event, I trust Pinned Golf's rangefinders to help me dial in our game plan and strategy."

Jeff Hamley

Reviews

"Pinned products have been a great addition to the Butterfield Golf Shop. The rangefinders and speakers have sold extremely well with fantastic customer service from the Pinned team. I personally believe the speaker is the best in the market!"

Ben DeArmond, PGA
Butterfield Country Club

"I chose Pinned Golf for the Pro Shop because their rangefinders offer many great features at an excellent price. The USB-charging capability is a strong selling point, and a single charge can last most of the season."

Matt Cunningham, PGA
Wampatuck Country Club

"When innovative technologies meet great performance, that's the Pinned Golf line of products. The fresh styling and great price point make the products popular with our customers and a great addition to our golf shops."

Matt Golden
Tullymore Golf Resort

"Pinned rangefinders have been an excellent addition to my shop over the past three years. They are reliable, easy to use, and offered at a great price point that my customers appreciate. With their variety of colors, strong performance, rechargeable battery, and simple point-and-click yardage, they're an easy product to recommend."

Andrew Firman, PGA
Aspen Golf Club

Our Values

Scramble when you have to.

Embracing agile problem solving and creative adaptability, this value mirrors our dedication to seizing opportunities, navigating challenges, and innovating on the go. It ensures we always make the most out of every situation, whether on or off the golf course.

Always dialed in.

Whether on or off the course, our unwavering attention to detail and heightened awareness of the world around us not only contributes to creating striking products with unmatched performance but also guides us in making meaningful decisions that stand the test of time.

Do not miss the turn shack.

Injecting a sense of fun ensures our brand and innovations boost performance while making each swing more enjoyable. We are not just improving your golf game, we are amplifying the joy in every moment on the course.

Our Mission

At Pinned, we're revolutionizing golf with products that unlock better vibes and lower scores. When you're having a great time on the course, it's not just your game that benefits; it's your entire experience. Pinned transforms every swing, every round, and every moment on the green into an unforgettable journey.

Our commitment to making golf more accessible is the cornerstone of what sets us apart in the industry. We don't just create products to keep pace; we craft products that truly stand out. Each item is meticulously designed to be not only attractive and intuitive but also remarkably affordable. Our dedication to accessibility isn't just a strategy; it's a guiding principle, ensuring that every golfer, regardless of experience or budget, can access top notch, standout products that enhance their golfing experience.
