NEW GALLERY IN LONG ISLAND CITY!

Introducing Studio K, Long Island City's first gallery. The gallery opens March 24th, with a reception from 1-7pm. Studio K is located only two blocks from PS 1. Exhibits will feature established and emerging artists.

The inaugural show includes established painters Thom Cooney- Crawford, Tobi Kahn and Carolyn Orner. Younger artists are Angelo Belfato, Dave Mahler and Ann Agee. Carolyn Orner creates mysterious and forceful symbolic paintings in encaustic. Tobi Kahn has been working on spiritual and evocative landscapes in rich and subdued tones. Ann Agee, Angelo Belfato and Thom Cooney- Crawford use the figure to express complex metaphysical and allegorical ideas and images. The daily life of the city and it's people are the subject of Dave Mahler's loosely, yet solidly painted canvas'. Other artists will also be represented.

Studio K is a pioneer in Long Island City. It can be reached easily from all parts of the city. Please stop by and be a part of the excitement.
