About Transitional Specialist Consulting

As a Certified Transitional Specialist, Rev. Aliza Bloom Robinson is present with the ministry during times of transition. These can be short-term bridge interim; six-month consulting; the entire transition process and even longer term Interim positions. The primary role is to create a container for discovery and exploration, allowing members of your spiritual community to call forth the shared intelligence of your ministry. The greatest gifts I bring to your community are fresh eyes, specialized vocation training, a neutral perspective and a powerful open heart. With consciousness as a priority, we explore curiosity, inviting a deep dive into discovery and aligning with the rhythm of Spirit.

During this time, I may fulfill typical ministerial responsibilities such as conducting most Sunday service, staff and Unity community support. This may be accomplished by facilitating the core transition processes, consulting with the Board, key leaders and staff in creating and implementing the ministry's transition action plan.

A transition action plan is early on co-created with the ministry's Board of Trustees and key leaders. This is determined at the time of contracting and is entirely based on the particular needs and desires of the ministry. It includes supporting the preparation for the new leadership to lead the ministry into a new future as defined by the ministry's mission. ## Testimonies and Reviews

Tom McCrory, Board President, Unity Santa Fe, NM (August 2021)

I think it was in late April or early May that I called (Doug Duerr, UWM) you and told you that Unity Santa Fe really needed a Transitional Consultant. You replied something to the effect of "I have the perfect person for you". I was a bit anxious and frazzled, so I said something to the effect of "Only one?" You replied "Don't worry. Given what I know about your congregation, she's exactly what you need." I just wanted to let you know that you were absolutely right. Reverend Aliza has been a Godsend (which, given we're a religious organization, can be taken literally). She is performing miracles with us and for us and we are extremely grateful.

Frank Phelan, Unity Church of the Hills, Austin, TX Board President (April 2021)

Reverend Aliza Bloom-Robinson was a Godsend for Unity Church of the Hills. Her spiritual maturity, wisdom and open heart were just the right recipe for a Bridge-Interim Minister for our congregation. Faced with the lingering challenges of the abrupt loss of our senior ministers, transitions with two interim ministers, a global pandemic, shifts to virtual and then back to in-person ministry, she brought a steady hand to the helm and created a beautiful space for our new Senior Minister. Rev. Aliza was unflappable, centered, spirit-led and consistently maintained her unique sense of humor that endeared her to us. She will always be our Beloved Interim Minister.

Karen Ives, Unity of Tucson, AZ, Board President (January 2020)

Rev. Aliza Bloom Robinson was a great fit for our church. We was well received and enjoyed. It is often during a transition to have attendance drop, but not with Rev. Aliza. She maintained attendance and tithes remained consistent. Rev. Aliza worked well with our small staff and board of directors. She approached issues professionally and positively, which always resulted in Divine Order. I would highly recommend Rev. Aliza as a Transitional Minister. I am grateful for her time with Unity Tucson and look forward to when our paths cross again.

Linda Hancock, Unity Church of the Hills, Austin, TX Youth Director (April 2021)

Rev. Aliza is a breath of fresh air! Her grounded spirituality and authenticity make it so easy to work with her. You feel instantly comfortable in her presence and relax into being yourself. Rev. Aliza is a great model of living out your truth and offers great insights and wisdom to anyone who's experiencing a challenge. ~Linda Hancock

Tammy Lorraine, Unity Church of the Hills, Austin, TX – Administration (April 2021)

"Rev. Aliza stepped in as our Bridge Interim Minister after a year of being without a senior minister. We had found an interim minister who after one month had to step away and we'd been without any spiritual leader for several months when Rev. Aliza arrived. This all was happening in the midst of and with the added challenges of Covid. She came into a staff that was weary, overwhelmed, overworked and confused. From the moment she arrived, she created a sense of spaciousness, light-hearted energy, and possibility. She guided, coached, led, inspired and softened the ground so that we could flourish once again. From the beginning, she was so clear in her boundaries as an interim minister that it made it easy to fall in love without getting attached. That's not an easy thing to do, but Rev. Aliza made it easy. As a result, we were able to welcome in our new senior minister with open arms. She made that transition, hand-off seamless. I am profoundly grateful for her role in our community."

Ron Scherwin, Unity Church of the Hills, Austin, TX CFO/COO (April 2021)

Rev. Aliza was the perfect interim minister for our church. She has a great ability to listen, learn quickly, and guide an organization to new heights in a short period of time. Rev. Aliza is knowledgeable on both the business and spiritual side of a ministerial role. She has the ability to work well with the board, the staff and the congregants in a very friendly way. She also continues to grow and educate herself in new areas and new ways of thinking. Rev. Aliza would be a great addition to your team or organization. I endorse her 100% and would love to work with her again.
