To Whom It May Concern,

I worked with Whitney in the past when she worked in Human Resources at our previous company. I knew when Whitney reached out to me to discuss the insurance, she now offers I knew it would be worth my time to listen to her. When I sat down with her she presented everything to where it was so easy to understand especially for people who aren't very insurance savvy. She was very professional through the entire process. She checks in often and always answers when I call. I plan to have her present to my employees as we are figuring out a date that works best since we continue to hire. I would recommend Whitney to anyone looking for industry leading supplemental coverage and a great local agent.

Thank you,
