TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

I would like to personally recommend Andrea Fayville and the coverages she offers with Globe Life, Family Heritage Division. Andrea first introduced herself to our company in the fall of 2020 and has been our local contact since that time.

The coverage options provide an excellent benefit to our employees that cannot be beat in the area. We are happy to offer high quality supplemental coverage to our team in the event they need it.

Working with Andrea has been extremely easy. She is professional, responsive, and dedicated to her work. She is knowledgeable and informative on the information she provides to our employees. She takes care of every stop of enrollment, claims, and customer service. We are fortunate that she takes the workload off the employer when it comes to adding benefits and, she takes the workload off the employee with managing the whole claim process. She is prompt, dependable, and efficient which helps us feel confident about offering this coverage to our employees. When working with some of life's hardest moments it is great to have an agent like Andrea Fayville on whom you can depend.

Sincerely,

RTS SHEARING, LLC
