

THE CREEK CHRONICLE

What Makes A Dad

*God took the strength of a mountain,
The majesty of a tree,
The warmth of a summer sun,
The calm of a quiet sea,
The generous soul of nature,
The comforting arm of night,
The wisdom of the ages,
The power of the eagle's flight,
The joy of a morning in spring,
The faith of a mustard seed,
The patience of eternity,
The depth of a family need,
Then God combined these qualities,
When there was nothing more to add,
He knew His masterpiece was complete,
And so, He called it ... Dad*

Ragged Old Flag

Johnny Cash

I walked through a county courthouse square, on a park bench an old man was sitting there.

I said, "your old courthouse is kind of run down." He said, "now, it'll do for our little town."

I said, "your old flag pole is leaned a little bit." And that's a ragged old flag hanging on it.

He said, "have a seat." And I sat down. Is this the first time you've been to our little town?

I said, "I think it is." He said, "I don't like to brag, but we're kind of proud of that ragged old flag.

"You see, we got a little hole in that flag there when Washington took it across the Delaware.

And it got powder burned, the night Francis Scott Key sat up watching it, writing 'Say Can You See'

It got a little rip in New Orleans, with Packingham and Jackson pulling at its seams.

And it almost fell at the Alamo beside the Texas flag, but she waved on though.

It got cut with a sword at Chancellorsville. And it got cut again at Shiloh Hill.

There was Robert E. Lee, Beauregard and Bragg. The south wind blew hard on that Ragged Old Flag.

On Flanders field in World War Two, She hung limp and low by the time it was through.

She was in Korea and Vietnam. She went where she was sent by her Uncle Sam.

She waved from our ships upon the briny foam and now they've about quit waving here at home.

On her own good land she's been abused. She's been burned, dishonored, denied, refused.

And now the government for which it stands, is scandalized throughout the land.

And she's getting threadbare and she's wearing thin, but she's in good shape for the shape she's in.

Cause she's been through the fire before, And I believe she can take a whole lot more.

So we raise her up every morning. Bring her down slow every night.

We don't let her touch the ground. And we fold her up right. On second thought...

I do like to brag. Cause I'm mighty proud of that ragged old flag.
