

THE CREEK CHRONICLE

Remembering Ann Goodge

It's been a year, but we're still here

With elbow up, index finger pointed and a flip of the wrist, I can still hear Ann say, “Well let me just tell you.” And this is how a great many conversations would begin with Ann Goodge. Ann was not afraid to “tell you”. I think that if she were here today, she would tell us how proud she is of the Little Creek family and how we have come together in a time of tragedy and persevered. We have continued her legacy and maintained the reputation of Little Creek this year. I have all the faith and determination we will continue for many years to come.

We miss you Ann Goodge! We won't let you down....

SEPTEMBER

The golden-rod is yellow;
The corn is turning brown;
The trees in apple orchards
With fruit are bending down.

The gentian's bluest fringes
Are curling in the sun;
In dusty pods the milkweed
Its hidden silk has spun.

The sedges flaunt their harvest,
In every meadow nook;
And asters by the brook-side
Make asters in the brook.

From dewy lanes at morning
the grapes' sweet odors rise;
At noon the roads all flutter
With yellow butterflies.

By all these lovely tokens
September days are here,
With summer's best of weather,
And autumn's best of cheer.

But none of all this beauty
Which floods the earth and air
Is unto me the secret
Which makes September fair.

'T is a thing which I remember;
To name it thrills me yet:
One day of one September
I never can forget.
