PROFILE

Hello! I'm a junior at Ball State University studying Sports Media Production through the Sports Link program. In my time at school, I've had extensive opportunities to hone my craft in on-air talent, photography, videography, journalism, feature storytelling, and live production. I'm pleased to say I've been honored with accolades from the NATAS, BEA, and STAA. I'm a driven and diligent student and worker, and I know I would be a valuable asset to your team. Thank you for your consideration. I look forward to hearing from you!
