

BRC Round 4 Recap

6/27/26

With Round 4 in the books... what a day!

Let's start with the chip-ins. Congrats to Marc L. and Ben R. for cashing in on last week's carryover and splitting a cool $220. Nicely done! But with so few chip-ins in the Big Rock Cup, I'm starting to wonder... are you guys suddenly hitting every green, or have your short games melted faster than an ice cream cone in this summer heat?

Now for the KPs. Once again, Hole 5 refused to give up a winner. At this point, that hole has a better defense than Fort Knox. Maybe next week we should all tee off from the red tees... and even then, I'm not making any promises. Congrats to Chuck A., who seems to have a reserved parking spot at the payout window right next to Steve B. Also, hats off to Ben R. and Mike "The Stud" Woods for sticking it close.

Now let's talk about the points race.

Only four weeks in, and Tom B. has decided subtlety is overrated. He grabs Player of the Month and vaults into first place. If he keeps this up, we may have to rename this thing The Brewster Cup. 😄

Of course, it's far from over. Gary and Steve are lurking just behind, and rumor has it they were overheard discussing a few "creative" ways to slowing a certain someone down. Nothing too serious... maybe a mysteriously flat tire, an "accidental" extra club in his bag, or swapping his rangefinder for a pair of binoculars. I won't name names, but the initials of the intended victim may or may not be... T.B.

The good news? There are still plenty of points left on the table. One hot round can change everything, so keep grinding, keep battling, and remember... every putt counts.

See you Between the Tees!
