

BRC Round 5 Recap

7/4/26

First off, thank you to everyone for the outstanding turnout and for keeping up the pace of play on Saturday. The group that finished first and had to sit around waiting for the rest of you appreciated it more than anyone. 😊

Congratulations to everyone who took home one of the raffle prizes, and thank you for spending part of your 4th of July weekend with the Men's Club.

KP's

Whether you call it talent, luck, or a golf ball with GPS, these guys found their way to the pay window.

Hole #3: Butch P. Hole #5: Scott C. Hole #14: Rick P. Hole #17: Marc F.

Chip-Ins

Or as I like to call them... putting lipstick on a pig.

Bob Starbody managed one chip-in, but can someone please explain Scott C. and his THREE chip-ins? Rumor has it every approach shot he muttered, "Take one less club... take one less club..." Apparently he took his own advice because the ball kept landing just short enough to chip in. It's a bold strategy, and somehow it worked.

Three chip-ins... and he still finished 3rd. Nice job, Scott!

Skins

Nobody claimed the front-side skin, so Hole #6 is now capped at $400. That also means we'll have two Mystery Holes next week. If you've been waiting for a sign to play, this is it.

On the back, Rick P. turned a KP on Hole #14 into a skin. That's called making the trip to the payout window worth the gas money.

Dave V. snagged the Mystery Hole on #9. Congratulations!

Big Rock Cup

Player of the Month: with Mike Q on top but with the field right behind him with only 1 week in.

We'd like to thank Tom B. for generously taking the day off and allowing the rest of the field to catch up.

Now let's talk about Gary. This guy is like a ninja. You never hear much about him, then suddenly he's standing at the top of the leaderboard. He quietly collected enough points to reclaim 1st Place.

Meanwhile, Tom R. apparently discovered that playing the Gold Tees wasn't such a bad idea after all, jumping into 2nd Place.

As for The Brewster... missing one week was enough to drop him to 3rd. Turns out you actually have to show up to score points. Who knew?

With 75 points awarded for a weekly win, nobody is out of this thing yet. One hot round can change everything.

If you've actually read this far, I'd like to personally thank all three of you. 😄

Don't forget to sign up and pick your tee box for Saturday. Otherwise, don't act surprised when you're standing on the White Tees wondering who made that decision.
