

Round 11 Recap 8/15/26

Well gentlemen, Round 11 is in the books, and there were definitely a few movers, shakers... and people who apparently thought the fairways were optional.

Chip-Ins

Three this week.

Congratulations to the guys who completely missed the green... then somehow convinced the golf gods to let the ball go in anyway. Sometimes it's better to be lucky than good.

KP's

Let's start with none other than Chuck "The KP King" A.

At this point I'm convinced Chuck has access to satellite imagery, drone footage, and green books stolen from the PGA Tour. Ever since he missed out on the Hole-in-One money, he's made it his personal mission to collect every KP on the course.

Next week Chuck will be required to play the par 3's from the tips, using Nitro golf balls and a junior set of clubs. My prediction? He'll still win at least two.

Luckily, he left a couple for the rest of us.

Hole 3 – Chuck A. – 36' 2"

Hole 5 – Chuck A. – 8' 1"

Hole 14 – Steve B. – 7' 8" (Didn't this guy win enough money last week?)

Hole 17 – Dave V. – 9' 2" (Looks like someone is building up that Hawaii souvenir fund.)

Nice shooting, gentlemen.

Skins, None, Zero, Nada, Goose egg.

The skins were apparently playing defense this week.

That means next week is loaded! We have Hole #3, Hole #12, and TWO Mystery Holes up for grabs. If you're thinking about skipping next week... don't.

Player of the Month

While Chuck was busy knocking down flagsticks, Paul M. quietly knocked Chuck right out of first place.

Roger L. is right behind him, so this race is tighter than a two-foot downhill slider with money on the line.

No clear favorite yet.

Big Rock Cup Standings

Tom R. continues to sit on top of the mountain, but he keeps leaving the door cracked open for someone to knock him off. The problem is... nobody seems interested in walking through it.

Biggest movers this week:

Paul M. climbed 8 spots.

Glen M. climbed 5 spots, Roger L. & Randy S. moved up 3 spots.

Unfortunately, more players went backwards than forwards. I won't name names... your scorecard already did that.

With 7 rounds remaining and 600 points still available to first place, this thing is far from over.

Remember... the bigger the field each week, the faster the skins pot grows, the bigger the payouts become, and the better your chance of climbing the leaderboard.

Who knows... you might even earn the privilege of kissing the golden ring on King Tom R.'s hand. 😁

Choosing the correct tees is important...

Just ask Dave V. It worked out to the tune of $400 on Hole 18.
