Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

Advancement of education

“The object of the CIO is

To advance education for young people under the age of 25 years through:

- a) the provision of grants, scholarships, awards to individuals;*
- b) the provision of grants to other charities; or*
- c) funding for educational projects for their benefit.”*

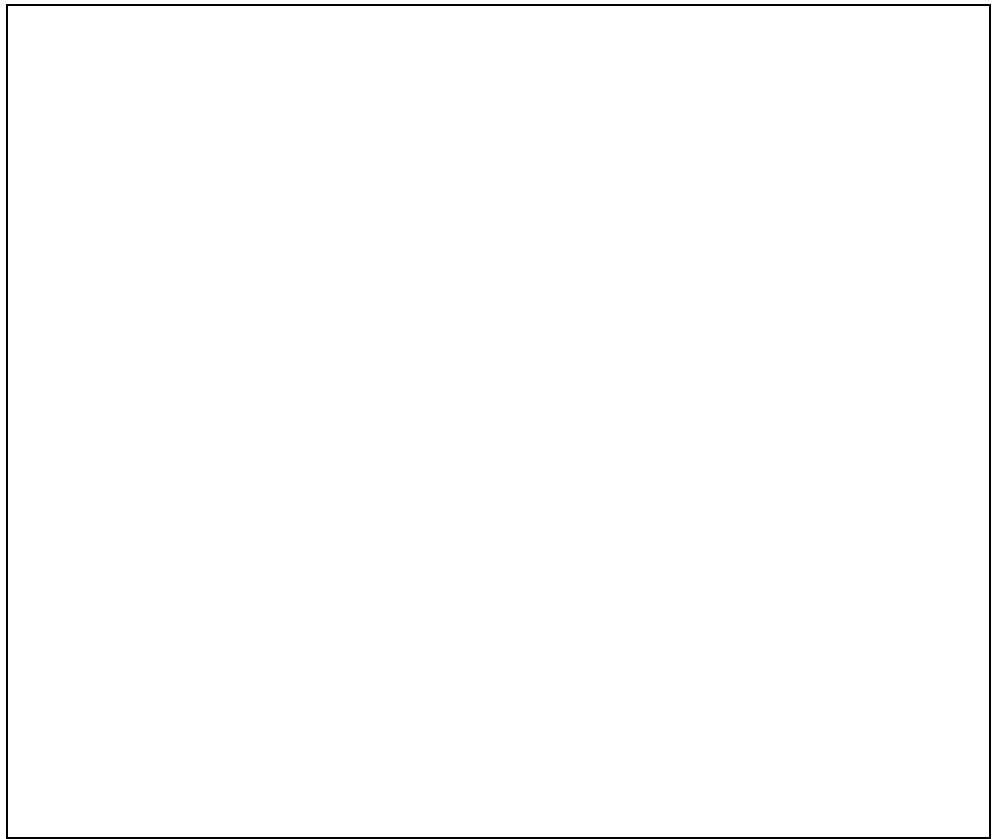

The Trustees having had regard to the Guidance issued by The Charity Commission on public benefit, have made grants totalling £7730 in the period stated above. These grants have been made to both individuals and other charities to enable children and young people under the age of 25 to remain in education.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

During the period Oct 2015 until March 31st 2017 the Fabulous Foundation organised a large sporting event with 300 competitors and several virtual events in order to raise funds and so be able to give grants to enable children and young people under the age of 25 to remain in education or partake of education activities.

During this time we were able to give grants for the following:-

- pay for student travel,
- pay for several children to go on school trips,
- purchase a refurbished laptop for a student
- pay exam fees for a student
- Give grants to the North Dorset Explorer scouts, the air ambulance for educational talks, contribute to the Yeovil Hospital Charity,
- Pay for music lessons,
- Contribute towards the cost of school uniforms,
- Purchase a pair of glasses
- Pay for printing for a students dance show
- Pay for text books
- Pay for children to attend a drama group
- Make a contribution towards the cost of the Duke of Edinburgh course at a local school.

Section EFinancial review*Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

We have no reserves, we try to make grants to all those who apply and therefore we do not hold funds in reserves

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Not applicable

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

The charity principally raises money through sporting events and online virtual events. As money comes in from ticket purchases the charity is then able to make grants to those who apply to us.

Income derived from ticket sales supports the grants applied for.

We are a very small charity and have no investment policy. Our key objectives are to help as many people as we can who apply to us.
