

GFWC- Pleasant Prairie Woman's Club

October 2021 Newsletter

Congratulations are in order for Mary Mock! She received her service pin for being a member for 25 years. Thank you Mary for all you have done for the club!

Our Health and Wellness speaker will be Jack Rose, President of the National Alliance on Mental Illness of Kenosha County (NAMI). He will be talking about Crisis Intervention Training. Come prepared with any questions you might have.

Unless requested, there is no Zoom for this meeting. If you need to attend by Zoom, please let Vickie prior to the meeting.

Become a Docent

Please remember, the Pleasant Prairie History Museum is looking for docents (volunteers). If you are able to help, please fill out a card and return it to me.

Thank you to all the ladies that helped out at The Pleasant Prairie Fire & Rescue Department annual Safety Day in the Prairie event. Volunteers for the day were Fran W. Sue S., Michelle R., Cheri S., Sue L., Sue L.'s granddaughter Emmy and Peggy's gentleman friend Richard.

Thank you to Cheri Schmidt for arranging another successful Highway Clean up day. Also, thank you to the ladies that were able to come out and help: Michelle R., Sue S., Fran W., Cheri S., & Monica Y. Can't wait to hear the stories of what was found.

Peggy Gallery has found a social event she thought might be fun and believed we could be accommodated safely. It's called The Dancing Horses and is held in Delavan, WI. The cost is about $35 per person and lunch would be extra. You could also bring a guest. The two dates she was thinking of are Oct. 10th or Oct. 17th at the 1:00 matinees. Their website is
