the cartel commandments a code for the spiritually untouchable what it means to be cartel?

this isn't a religion. this isn't a rulebook. this is remembering your power.

cartel energy is ancestral, intuitive, strategic. it's sacred and savage.

this guide is for the ones who are building something unseen.

you don't join the cartel.
you remember you've always been it.

choose one commandment a week to work with live it. let it change you.

"thou shall protect thy peace like it pays your rent."

"Your energy is your economy. The more you spend entertaining chaos, the less you have to build with."

 cartel code: "if it costs my peace, it's too expensive."

- What drains your spirit daily that you've normalized?
 - Where can you set a sacred boundary today?

"thou shall stop confusing attachment with loyalty."

"If you have to abandon yourself to keep them, that ain't loyalty... that's spiritual self-harm."

a cartel code: "loyalty without alignment is bondage."

- Who are you loyal to out of fear or history?
- What would it look like to be loyal to your growth instead?

"thou shall not dim thy aura to make others comfortable."

"Shrinking to soothe egos is spiritual codependency. Your light ain't the problem. Their unhealed wounds are."

& cartel code: "my light is a boundary."

- Where are you downplaying your truth, talents, or power?
 What does it feel like to
 - What does it feel like to unapologetically glow?

"thou shall know the difference between a trigger and a truth."

"Your triggers are sacred messengers, not enemies. But don't confuse projection with prophecy."

- What door are you still knocking on that's closed for a reason?
- What open space are you ignoring while chasing validation?

"thou shall cleanse your energy like your life depends on it."

"Spiritual hygiene is nonnegotiable. You wouldn't let someone live in your home rent-free. Stop letting them live in your aura."

å cartel code: "clean aura, clean alignment."

- · How do you spiritually detox?
- What needs clearing in your life right now?

"thou shall speak power over your own name."

& cartel code: "growth requires goodbye."

- What part of you are you scared to let die?
- What does your next level need from you?

"thou shall never forget. you are the altar."

"The temple is not outside of you. It's not a place. It's your spirit, your body, your becoming."

 What would change if you treated yourself like a holy place?
