The Trades Family Foundation Celebrates Successful Inaugural Golf Outing

[Tenaflly, NJ] — [September 23] — The Trades Family Foundation is thrilled to announce the overwhelming success of its inaugural Golf Outing, held on Monday, September 16 at the beautiful Knickerbocker Country Club. The event, which was in Memoriam of Susanne Pariot, brought together golf enthusiasts, community leaders, and supporters for a day of networking, camaraderie, and fundraising for higher education scholarships, which will be granted to the children of tradespeople who have lost a parent.

The day kicked off with a sunny morning and a warm welcome from the team at the Trades Family Foundation. Participants enjoyed a round of golf, while competing for prizes in various categories, including best team score.

"This year's outing was not only a fantastic day on the course but also an incredible opportunity to raise funds for the children of tradespeople who have lost a significant member of their family," said Alex Pasacrita, Chairman of the Board. "We are grateful for the support of our sponsors, participants, and volunteers who made this event possible. Together, we're making a real impact in our community."

The event featured a post-golf dinner reception and awards ceremony, where participants enjoyed a delicious meal sponsored by The Walters Group, and celebrated the achievements of top players.

Thanks to the generosity of our sponsors, including The Walters Group, Turner Construction, A&H Custom Machine, among many others, we were able to raise a significant amount of money to support the ongoing efforts of providing scholarships to board-selected applicants.

The Trades Family Foundation would like to extend its heartfelt thanks to everyone who participated in and supported this year's Golf Outing. We look forward to seeing everyone again next year!

About The Trades Family Foundation:

The loss of a parent in a household can create family hardships that can alter the trajectory of a child's life. The Trades Family Foundation, Inc. is a non-profit organization developed to ease one of the many burdens that arise when a household loses one of its head members: financing higher education. Our mission is to provide monetary support for children of tradespeople through awarding scholarships to board-selected applicants with a goal of keeping their futures strong and bright through the dark times.
