

A Prayer to Forgive Others

Father, in the name of Jesus Christ, I choose to forgive _____ for _____ _____ and for making me feel _____.

I may not feel like forgiving _____, but I choose to do so out of obedience to Christ.

I am choosing to forgive, by my own free will, because You ask me to, and You want me to be more like You in every way. I understand that I forgive because You forgave me first and died for my sins, not because _____ deserves it, wants it, or has asked for it.

Since I am choosing to forgive, I affirm that _____ did hurt me. I ask You for the grace to live with the consequences of what has been done to me, and for the peace that comes from knowing You work all things together for my good.

I cancel any debt I feel this person owes me and commit this person's debt to You alone Lord. I even choose to bless this person, just as You teach us to do, by asking You to give them what it is that they need (salvation, revelation, repentance, love, etc.).

I cancel any permission my unforgiveness has given to the enemy, and in the name of Jesus I command every wicked spirit who has claimed the right to any place in my life to leave now and go where the Lord Jesus sends you!

In the name of Jesus Christ, I pray this prayer. Amen.
