1. Staff: Notwithstanding any language to the contrary in Article VIII of the Master Agreement, the Parties’ clarify that the language in Article VIII, Section 8.1 excluding meal periods as time worked for any purpose, including for purposes of calculating overtime, does not apply to the sixth (6th) and/or seventh (7th) consecutive day provisions of the Master Agreement; or change the calculation and/or payment of any “missed meal” penalties under the Master Agreement due to staff employees who work through their paid meal period; or affect the applicability of daily overtime after eight (8) hours worked under Article VIII, Section 8.5.

2. Daily Hires: Furthermore, it is understood that in the event a daily hire employee works more than forty (40) hours or five (5) days at an eight hour minimum call in a workweek (“defined as beginning 12:01am Saturday and continuing until 12:00 Midnight the following Friday”), the daily hire employee will receive additional compensation at one-half (1/2) of his or her straight time rate of pay for all hours worked on the sixth (6th) and/or seventh (7th) day within the NABET workweek. In no case shall overtime accrue on overtime. Additionally, the exclusion of meal periods as time worked for any purpose does not change the calculation and/or payment of any “missed meal” penalties under the Master Agreement due to daily hires who work through their paid meal period; or affect the applicability of daily overtime after eight (8) hours worked under Sideletter 32, Paragraph 1.

Sideletter 4 – Contract Interpretations

Effective January 1, 2024, daily hire employees may carry over a maximum of five (5) unused paid sick leave days accrued in one calendar year into the following calendar year but are not permitted to use more than five (5) paid sick leave days in any calendar year.

Should an applicable federal, state and/or local paid sick leave law or regulation provide a daily hire with entitlements greater than those benefits delineated in this Sideletter, the Company will provide such daily hire employee with the greater entitlements in accordance with such law or regulation.

Employee Stock Purchase Program (ESPP)

The Company will permit 170-day daily hire employees to participate in its Employee Stock Purchase Program to the extent the Company allows for similarly situated non-represented freelance employees to become eligible for this benefit during the term of the 2022-2027 Master Agreement.
