

Update: Received from NBC Universal Labor Relations
04/24/2020

The Union received an email from NBC Universal Labor Relations stating that:

“NBC freelance employees who are being paid but at home, will be paid an additional week beyond May 1st through May 8th, then the pay continuation will end.”

The Union is still working with the company on your behalf, but in the meantime you should file for unemployment benefits as soon as possible. If you have any questions send your name and contact information to info@nabet31.org and someone will get back to you.
