

ARABIC WRITING WORKSHOPS: APL386_Literature for Children

In an effort to address the need for Arabic and/or bilingual teaching practice, I hosted the Al Futtaim Education Foundation in my Children's Literature class, APL386. I invited Dr. Farah Sarraj, Director of Arabic at Al Futtaim Education Foundation, and her team, Ms. Nema Katranji, Leader of Arabic Pedagogy, and Mr. Alaa Zen, Leader of Arabic Curriculum Design & Development, to offer Arabic Creative Writing Workshops for my APL 386 students. The Al Futtaim Education Foundation Arabic team visited our class on February 13 and 22, 2020, and gave two days of Arabic children's literature creative writing workshops. They worked with the students on analyzing Arabic storybooks, storytelling in Arabic, and writing a children's story book in Arabic.

