HAZING

Examples of Hazing

This list of prohibited practices is intended to provide examples of hazing that can occur during any initiation/training process and active membership to an organization/team. Because it is impossible to anticipate every situation that could involve hazing, this list should not be considered all-inclusive.

1. Psychological hazing, which is defined as any act which is likely to: (a) compromise the dignity of another; (b) cause embarrassment or shame to another; (c) cause another to be the object of malicious amusement or ridicule; (d) or cause psychological harm or substantial strain.

5. Members or nonmembers told to do anything exclusively for the entertainment of the organization members.
6. All forms of physical activity not a part of an organized athletic contest and not specifically directed toward constructive work (push-ups, sit-ups, calisthenics, etc.). No one truly knows the physical limitations of individuals and the safety of our students must always come first.
7. The application of foreign substances to the body, such as throwing food, spraying water of any temperature, etc.
8. Such activities, such as scavenger hunts, which result in illegal activity, new member ditches, kidnaps, unity walks, blindfolding, etc.
9. Any paddling, swatting, or collective spanking.
10. Personal errands run by new members for returning organization members.
11. Assigning pranks such as stealing, painting objects, or harassing another team/organization.
12. Forcing, coercing or permitting students to eat or drink foreign or unusual substances such as raw meat, salt water, onion, hot pepper, baby food, etc.
13. Forced nudity and/or forcing, allowing or suggesting that a student dress in a conspicuous, embarrassing, and/or degrading manner.
14. Forcing and/or coercing the branding/cutting/tattooing of any part of the body.

16. No gambling, cursing or anything else that is deemed inappropriate or offensive by your coaches.
17. Players may not leave campus unless under the supervision of coaches
