

About Adam the Great

Join me in a world of enchantment as Charles Adam Johnson, known on stage as Adam the Great, brings over 25 years of global magic experience to your doorstep.

Hailing from Washington State, Adam embarked on this mystical journey immediately after high school, fueled by a passion ignited from magic books and local magic shop wonders.

Captivated by the sheer joy and laughter a magician could bring, Adam knew this was his destined path. Today, he's not just a magician; he's a master of improvisation, a weaver of skits, and a conjurer of awe-inspiring magic. His performances are a unique blend of audience interaction and personal connection, making every show a one-of-a-kind experience.

Celebrated as a two-time Department of Defense Entertainer, Adam has brought smiles and comedy relief to troops and their families overseas. His approach to magic? Don't take it too seriously - a philosophy that lets his humor shine through every trick.

Adam the Great's versatility is unmatched - catch him at fairs, theaters, corporate events, casinos, and private parties. He's also a familiar face on live TV, leaving hosts and audiences utterly astonished.

Whether it's a captivating street show, a grand stage performance with illusionary feats, or up-close magic right before your eyes, Adam's repertoire is as diverse as it is enthralling.

But what truly sets Adam the Great apart is his love for his art. It's not just a performance; it's a passion that radiates through every trick and every laugh he provokes.

Choose Adam the Great for an unforgettable experience where magic and comedy meet.

He's not just a performer; he's an entertainer who will leave you spellbound and smiling.
