LOST MARY MO5000

The Lost Mary Vape by Elf Bar MO5000 is the perfect vape pen for experienced and beginner users alike. It offers an easy-to-use device with premium construction that packs a punch in terms of performance. This disposable vape is powered by a 650mAh battery, giving it plenty of battery life for a full day of use. The 13ml capacity is more than enough for most average vapers and should offer hours of vaping enjoyment. The mesh coils provide intense flavor profiles, ensuring every puff tastes great.

Additionally, this vape device has a cool battery indicator system featuring LED colors that make it easy to tell when the battery levels are high, medium, or low. This helps you accurately estimate how much power is left in the device so you don't find yourself stranded without any juice in your tank at a critical time. All these great features come within an eye-catching shell that looks stylish and prestigious, making the Lost Mary Vape by Elf Bar MO5000 the perfect choice for people who vape and are searching for optimum performance and convenience in one package.

This e-liquid disposable vape device is specifically designed to meet the needs of those looking for an easy and convenient vaping experience. Featuring a high-capacity 13.5ml e-liquid tank, it can deliver around 5000 puffs before needing a refill. Additionally, its rechargeable 500mAh battery can keep up with even the most power-hungry vapers without any difficulty. Furthermore, it uses a modern mesh coil technology that heats the e-liquid more evenly than traditional coils, resulting in more flavorful hits every time. On top of that, the juice inside comes in 50mg (5 percent) strength, allowing for an intense yet smooth throat hit.
